

FAMILY CAMPS

Family Camps at Rocky Mountain Mennonite Camp offer the perfect opportunity for your family to get away from the regular schedule of life and enjoy some quality time together. Each week has a different camp pastor who offers morning devotions and evening fireside worships. Activities are family oriented so that kids and adults can participate together. Mornings generally start off with hikes and free time. Afternoons offer special activities, including arts and crafts, kayaking, sports, boat races, rock climbing and rappelling. River tubing is offered on Wednesday morning! Evenings include family recreation and a fireside worship along with the late night snacks and games.

A kid's camp is offered in the mornings for children ages 2-6, with activities just for them. Thursdays are a "free" day when your family can choose to go whitewater rafting, horseback riding, or visit some of the many local attractions. A chance to climb Pikes Peak is also offered for those who would like to conquer the 14,110 ft. mountain.

FAMILY CAMP I

Ned and Lowell Wyse will direct our activity and worship times which will include the sharing of poetry along with guest appearances by folks from Bible times. We welcome Bruce & Paula Brunk Kuhns to lead us in music along with serving as hike leaders for mountain top experiences in the mornings.

This is the last camp of the Rocky Mountain season to enjoy a family vacation. Dennis & Jen LeFevre (and family) return to serve as our Program Directors. Tom & Lois Harder (and family) will lead us in the morning devotions and evening fireside worships. The Harder family will also lead us in music and singing.
