

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE IN AND SUPPORT THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN MINISTRY

- ☑ Utilizing your talents to make a quilt, paint a picture, carve a walking stick, or whatever your gifts might lead you to create in support of the VISION 2012 campaign.
- ☑ Volunteering your gifts and talents for a day, a weekend, a week, or more! We're happy to give you a place to stay and great food while you're here helping us accomplish campaign projects.
- ☑ Offering financial gifts as you are able from $5 - $50 - $500 to $5,000 or more. One hundred percent of all capital gifts go toward VISION 2012 projects as we strive to have fees along with conference and church support cover operating expenses.
- ☑ Coming as an individual, family or small group to stay at a facility and financially support the overall operating budget of RMMC.
- ☑ Taking advantage of by participating in the variety of programs we offer all year from snow camps, adult retreats, youth camps, wilderness camps and family camps.
- ☑ Sharing with friends, family and others about your experience here at Rocky Mountain and encouraging them to see what we have to offer.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN MENNONITE CAMP

VISION 2012 PROJECTS FOR 2008-09

Chapel Renovation

- Replace large wooden doors on south side of Chapel with windows for natural lighting and better insulation.
- New floor surface.
- Add heating system for facility comfort and year-around use.
- Acquire new chairs/benches.
- Celebration of Chapel improvements scheduled for July 26, 2009.

Ministry Benefit: The Chapel has served as the spiritual gathering place for the Rocky Mountain ministry. After almost 50 years of service, the improvements are intended to allow us to enjoy and utilize this special place through the year.

The chapel was built in 1959

Year-round water for Aspen and Boys Bathhouse

- Connect winterized water line from new well to bathhouse facilities.

Ministry Benefit: Water year-round will allow additional accommodation space for volunteers and guests that come from Sept. through May. Snow Camp participants staying on the Chapel side of camp will especially enjoy nearby bathhouse facilities

PROJECTS YET TO COME

Improve Staff Housing

- Renovate Pleiades (female accommodations).
- Renovate Staffville (male accommodations).

Repair / replace Infirmary

- The infirmary is a "sick" building that requires a new foundation for its continued usage.

Pleiades serves as a year-round facility for summer staff and guests

Renovate/replace Quonset (Rustic) Cabins

- Consider improvements to Quonsets which might include combining the space of two cabins into one with a bathroom in the middle.

Improve Pond

- Dredge pond of sediment build-up for water activities and for year around fish habitat.

Replace Aging Vehicles

- Additional wilderness program vehicle.
- Maintenance, snow plow vehicle

Improve Beaver Hogan Facility

- Camp owns property at the bottom of the road near highway 67 called "Beaver Hogan" which has an old log cabin on it. With a well, electricity and a septic system, it offers the possibility for additional long term staff housing or other ideas. The current facility is unusable as an accommodation.

OUR CAPITAL PROJECT/VOLUNTEER COORDINATORS

Rocky Mountain welcomes Tom Unruh & Jill White to facilitate the continuing VISION 2012 Capital Campaign projects through the fall of 2009.

Tom grew up on a farm near Goessel, KS. Jill's family lived on her great-grandmother's farm north of Peabody, KS. They met in Marion, KS and were married in 1985.

Their mutual interest in public policy, travel, nature, and service, took them from Kansas to Washington, DC, where they spent 13 years working on national health care and economic development issues. Seeking a change of pace, in 2001 they sold their house and moved aboard a 28-foot sailboat in California. Their sailing adventures have taken them across three oceans and 12 countries. For six of the past seven summers they have flown back to the US to work at RMMC. Tom has served as the maintenance director and Jill as the nature studies director and she also worked in the office and kitchen.

"We are excited about the coming year at RMMC and the opportunity to spend more time here where we feel our values and interests are in tune with the camp's mission," said Jill and Tom.

Mission Statement

Rocky Mountain Menonite Camp is a ministry of the Menonite Church with the purpose of providing a place of retreat which encourages holistic Christian growth by fostering the spiritual, social, physical, and intellectual growth of each guest.
